

I am very concerned that if you go ahead and permit further consolidation of OUR media, our public will not be getting the unfettered information on critical issues which are crucial to a democratic society. Please desist from this ill-advised change. It would only serve the interests of a few media moguls, not the American public.